

PRESS RELEASE JULY 2018

Lisanne Fridsma – Fitting Image

The City Café, Nineties
Thu 2 - Sun 26 August (not 13), 8.40pm (60 mins)

'Frank, fearless and funny'
Comedy.nl

FINALIST Bath New Act of the Year 2017
SEMI FINALIST So You Think You're Funny 2015

Listings Information

Comedy

Storytelling/Stand-up

The City Café, Nineties

2-12, 14-26 August 8.40pm

Free entry

How do you know where you are going in life? Are you ever done sorting yourself out? Lisanne was given the roadmap to her life at birth. Find out where this roadmap had led her, as she tries to navigate how to fit in to the world when you feel like you're behind of your time and have big dreams and long toes.

Lisanne Fridsma, a Dutch cake loving introvert, serious about comedy. She has been living in the U.K. for 4 years now, and really makes an effort of fitting in. Her biggest ambition is that someday she'll be called quintessentially British. Not that she is, but she's very fond of the word quintessentially.

Before moving to the U.K. Lisanne had a brief go at stand-up in the Netherlands, winning both the Comedy Battle and Rock Around The World competitions in 2008. She gave up gigging to go to university and qualify as a physiotherapist. Realising this was a big mistake, she boarded a plane to the U.K five days after graduating to start performing again.

lisannefridsma.com
@lisannefridsma

Lisanne performs regularly at Angel Comedy. She is the host of A Piece of Cake!, a monthly comedy show with homemade cakes in the Bill Murray in London.

For further information

Lisanne Fridsma / lisannefridsma.com

Advice: John Gordillo, Kristel Zweers, Soho Theatre Young Company
Choreography: Cat Foley