'Vic & Bob for the video game, grime generation, their Big Night Out-style chat show is a lot of fun' Scotsman

The UK's finest, and possibly only, spoof chat show and chaotic cabaret, The Not So Late Show with Ross & Josh is hosted by Ross Brierley and Joshua Sadler, who orchestrate maximum chaos to provide a truly unique and insanely inventive Fringe experience.

With celebrity guests, daft sketches, idiosyncratic interactive games, spoof adverts and multimedia ingenuity, The Not So Late Show with Ross & Josh packs a real punch. This year they'll be joined by a mixture of hilarious special guests from the pick of the Fringe's best alternative acts as well as regular collaborators, BBC Leeds' Larry & Paul for a primetime dose of high-energy hilarity.

Ross & Josh have amassed a cult following with their monthly shows in Leeds. They made their Edinburgh Fringe debut at The Pleasance in 2017 and are best known for UK Garage Horse Racing, which has over 5 million views online, was broadcast on E4's Virtually Famous and dubbed 'the funniest thing in the world' by Comedy Central.

'More originality and inventiveness within a few minutes of this show than in the entire duration of other Fringe hours' - The Skinny

'A unique treat' - Ed Fest Mag
